About Us

Riverside, MO (pop. 4,400), is a suburban community located just 4 miles northwest of downtown Kansas City, Missouri, in southern Platte County. Riverside is home to Park Hill South High School, Argosy Casino and Hotel, the NWSL KC Current Headquarters and training facility, a large industrial park, and the soon to open Morton Amphitheater. The City does not collect property taxes and provides its citizens with free trash service and discounted gym memberships. All utilities and recreation facilities are managed by outside vendors. The City employs roughly 100 FTE's among its seven departments.

The Riverside Finance Department manages the City's $56M budget, while overseeing the organization's accounting and financial management, financial planning, and investments portfolios. The City's Annual Budget reflects a strong financial position. The City has also won the GFOA Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting from 2006 to present for its Annual Comprehensive Financial Report.

About the Position

The Finance Director reports to the City Administrator and provides leadership, direction, and business decision support regarding the financial and operational performance of the City of Riverside.
